June 2019

WORSHIP SCHEDULE

Sundays: 9:30am Worship
10:30am Fellowship/Coffee Hour

Luther Crest Women's Day Trip

Tuesday, June 25th — 7:30am to 5:00pm

A day trip to the Luther Crest Bible Camp in Alexandria is back by popular demand! The theme this year is "Jesus 180" with morning and afternoon presentations on worldly stories with today's versions of Jesus' teachings.

The day will start with morning worship in their beautiful chapel followed by a morning speaker, lunch in the cafeteria with the weekly campers and an afternoon speaker session.

We plan to leave from the church's east parking lot at 7:30am and arrive back in Morris around 5:00pm.

During this one day experience, we can celebrate God's love through worship and music, hearing innovative speakers and enjoy the beauty of nature in a Bible Camp setting.

Cost is $15 per person which covers the registration fee and lunch at Luther Crest. Watch for the sign-up sheet in the Narthex the first week of June.

Share Your Musical Talents!

The Music and Worship Committee would like to invite musicians and singers of all ages to share your talents and joy with our congregation. Perhaps you played a spring recital number. If so, consider sharing it with the congregation! You could perform during the Prelude, Special Music or the Offertory. This is an open invitation for any time now throughout the summer. Instrumental or vocal selections are all welcomed. We always applaud too! Let the church office or a member of Music and Worship Committee (Brad Miller, Ana Miller, Jim Krosch, Adrienne Hilbrands, Nadine Heck, Bob Dalager, Eugene Anderson, or Pastor Dan) know if you are willing to share your talent and inspire us all!

God's Global Barnyard

$1,558.82 was collected towards the Sunday school's God's Global Barnyard! Since we surpassed the $1500 goal, Pastor Dan will kiss a goat during worship Sunday, June 2!! Don't miss it!!

Catch Up Sunday!

We are having a "Catch Up Sunday" on Sunday, June 23rd. No, we did not say Ketchup, like you put on your hot dog or hamburger. This catch-up is a special offering for the winter worship services that were lost to bad weather or low attendance because of cold, ice or snow.

Summer is finally coming, but like many congregations we are feeling the loss of offerings from a difficult winter. That means ministries we support are suffering. You can help! On Sunday, June 23rd we are having a "Catch Up Sunday." You are asked to pray about your offering for this Catch Up Sunday. Then act! We invite you to help us receive or exceed an average Sunday offering in this special appeal. (If you use electronic giving, "Thanks!" We invite you to make a "special gift" for our congregation's ministries). Your offerings make ministry happen in Jesus' name! Thanks for giving generously! We will be serving a picnic style meal after worship, of grilled burgers and hotdogs, chips, and beans. Ketchup will be available. Don't miss it! See you June 23rd for our "Catch Up Sunday!"

Summer is finally here. It was a sunny warm day recently, and I was out walking in my neighborhood. I saw a memorable scene. A man was mowing his lawn. Closely following behind him was a perhaps four-year-old boy, I assumed his son, who was trying to keep up, pushing his own toy lawn mower. It was a humorous, yet poignant, sight. I had to chuckle and smile, as the boy nearly ran to try and keep up with his father. It reminded me of my own sons, who used to stand on a stool, and practice shaving in the mirror, while their dad was shaving. We all learn by imitation.

This reminds me of a passage from I Corinthians. “For the message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. For since, in the wisdom of God, the world did not know God through wisdom, God decided, through the foolishness of our proclamation, to save those who believe.” When Paul uses the word “believe” he also is implying “trust” and “follow.”

I guess we who believe, trust and follow Christ could be called “fools,” or “fools for Christ.” Maybe we don’t want to think of ourselves as fools, yet I think it is faithful, if humorous, to think of ourselves in this way. We may attempt great things for God, and “the world” may see this as foolishness. We may believe great things about God, and the world may see this as foolishness. The cross may seem like foolishness, our proclamation may seem like foolishness, yet, Paul declares “it is the power of God.” (“For Christ did not send me to baptize but to preach the gospel, and not with eloquent wisdom, lest the cross of Christ be emptied of its power” – I Cor. 1: 17).

Some of us may even kiss a goat for the sake of raising offerings for hungry and oppressed people. Certainly this one is “a fool for Christ”! (June 2nd you can witness this during our 9:30 a.m. worship).

The Lord Jesus started with a small company of followers from whom little could be expected. Yet from them came the seeds of the greatest movement in history.

As the boy followed his father with his lawn mower, we are called by God’s Spirit to follow Christ. Knowing what we do, we’d be a fool not to. He is “the way, the truth, and the life” (John 14:6). Let us be fools for Christ, finding joy, peace and life in him. And sharing his life and teachings with all.

Blessings,

Pastor Dan Belgum

Have you ever noticed how much of Christ’s life was spent in doing kind things – in merely doing kind things? Run over it with that in view, and you will find that he spent a great proportion of his time simply in making people happy, in doing good turns to people. There is only one thing greater than happiness in the world, and that is holiness; and it is not in our keeping. But what God has put in our power is the happiness of those about us, and that is largely to be secured by our being kind to them...I wonder why it is that we are not all kinder than we are. How much the world needs it. How easily it is done. How instantaneously it acts. How infallibly it is remembered.

Talking With Kids About Drugs

Teaching your kids about the dangers of using illegal drugs is one of the most important things you can do as a parent. But it can be difficult to know how to begin.

How should you lay the groundwork with your preschooler? What's important for a teenage to hear? Here are some tips from the Partnership for a Drug-Free America.

Preschool

- ☐ Talk to your child about why it's good to be healthy. "I'm glad I'm healthy because...."
- ☐ Talk about harmful substances around the house and why they should be avoided.

Grades K-3

- ☐ Tell your child how you feel about illegal drugs.
- ☐ Encourage your child to ask questions.
- ☐ Talk about why some drugs are illegal and how they hurt people.

Grades 4-6

- ☐ Make sure our child knows your rules against illegal drugs and the consequences from breaking them.
- ☐ Act out scenes where someone offers your child drugs.
- ☐ Focus on facts about drugs, not fears.

Grades 7-9

- ☐ Re-emphasize the rules and the consequences from breaking them.
- ☐ Emphasize how drugs detract from a person's appearance.
- ☐ Discuss what your child has learned about drugs in school.

Grades 10-12

- ☐ Emphasize how drugs can destroy a teen's future.
- ☐ Use relevant news reports to begin discussions.
- ☐ Compliment your teen on the good choices he/she makes.

Make sure your kids know that it's dangerous to use household items such as glue and cleaning chemicals as mind-altering substances.

Winning Strategies for Dads

Hey, Dad! Do you want your kids to feel better about themselves, have healthy attitudes about relationships, even do better in school? Then get involved with your children's lives. Consider these possible ways of becoming the best father you can be.

- ♦ Let them see that you respect their mother.
- ♦ Spend time with your children. Participate in their lives, from volunteering in their classrooms to tucking them into bed.
- ♦ Set clear rules and expectations.
- ♦ Be a positive role model.
- ♦ Be affectionate. Give your children hugs and kisses every day.
- ♦ Eat together as a family.
- ♦ Read to your children.
- ♦ Make time to listen. Encourage your children to express ideas, thoughts and feelings to you.
